

It is time that America return to the days of personal responsibility instead of expecting (and insisting) that "The Government" take care of us. Parents who think their children see too much violence on TV should TURN IT OFF! Who's in charge, anyway?!!